

Representing people deprived of their liberty

Advocacy protects and represents people who are under Deprivation of Liberty Safeguards (DoLS)

Ensure that people living in care homes & hospitals who lack capacity are adequately protected

Their rights are upheld

Meet with the person regularly

Ascertain their wishes and feelings

Represent the person in all DoLS matters

Request a review or challenge the DoLS through the Court of Protection if required